Rights of Nature at Climate Week Amplification toolkit

We are thrilled to announce that the Global Alliance for the Rights of Nature \(GARN\) will be actively participating in this year's Climate Week in New York City, bringing the Rights of Nature to the forefront of the climate discussion. Our presence aims to promote the concept of the Rights of Nature and its crucial role in addressing the pressing challenges of climate change.

GARN will be a part of the Climate Week March on Sunday, September 17th, at 1 PM carrying the banner: "No Climate Justice without Rights of Nature". Together, we can amplify Nature's voice and demand the respect and protection our planet deserves. Meet us at 12pm ET at east corner of 57th and Broadway, at 1780 Broadway, NY, NY. More information here.

On Monday, September 18th, at 11 AM, GARN, Reserva, The Explorers Club and HHMI Tangled Bank Studios are hosting a special Climate Week screening of "Wild Hope: Does Nature Have Rights?", followed by a discussion with leaders of the Rights of Nature movement (and snacks). Join in Explorers Club at: 46 E 70th St, New York, NY 10021. More information and RSVP here.

On Thursday, September 21st from 6 to 8 PM, join GARN, the More Than Human Rights Project (MOTH) and Earth Rights Advocacy NYU School of Law to learn from Rights of Nature leaders around the world. More information here, no RSVP required.
